

Neighborhood Communication

Cora Scott

Director of Public Information & Civic Engagement, City of Springfield

CPO and the City are working together to build a framework for a Web site – SGFNeighborConnect.com – and a quarterly newsletter – SGFNeighborConnect.

Each neighborhood will have its own section of the Web site and the newsletter. Web addresses will be SGFNeighborConnect.com/Bissett, for example.

The Web site will include:

- Splash page
- Calendar of events
- Map of each neighborhood
- Neighborhood association officers' contact info
- Form to join the association
- Social media links
- Online bulletin board/connection point for neighbors to assist and interact with each other:
Services offered/Services needed.

Connections

Learn about this local neighborhood partner

RESOURCES: Visit SGFNeighborhoodConnect.com to connect to your community.

Call 864-1010 to report a concern in your neighborhood.

Visit to report a concern in your neighborhood.

The newsletter will include:

- Website content
- Additional articles
- Guest columns from parks, schools, churches, businesses, public safety organizations like the Fire Dept. and Police Dept.

What should go in?

Photos, events, stories about exceptional people, businesses, parks homes, yards – even pets! – in your neighborhood.

Neighbors will be provided training and access to the Web site to contribute content.

Production

- Neighbors who serve on the editorial board or editorial committee will help us decide what the newsletter's articles and content will be each quarter.
- CPO and the City will help write some of the articles and will design the newsletter.

Distribution

- The first issue will be mass-mailed out to about 35,000 households with a subscription card.
- After the first issue, distribution will be handled by subscription, pick-up at various distribution sites in your neighborhoods and possibly delivery by neighborhood association members.
