Selection Process for Police Recruits

Effective Date: 01/26/2022

- 4.2.6(e) All information or material received shall be kept secure, during and after the investigation.
- 4.2.6(f) If the candidate is hired by the City of Springfield, their Background Investigation Packet shall be stored in a locked cabinet in a location designated by the Investigations and Support Services Bureau Commander, separate from all other files. This file must be retained for five years after the employee has separated from the City.
- 4.2.6(g) If the candidate is not hired, the Background Investigation Packet shall be stored in the same manner as above but shall be destroyed five years from the date the investigation commenced.
  - 4.2.6(g.1) This allows for future reference concerning unsuccessful applicants who apply again at a later date.
  - 4.2.6(g.2) In case of litigation, Background Investigation Packets shall be retained for at least three years after adjudication. (References: Missouri Secretary of State General Records Retention Guidelines, GS 062 Employment Recruitment and Selection Records).
- 4.2.7 Persons who may possess or access a Background Investigation Packet:
  - 4.2.7(a) Background investigator (but only files pertaining directly to the applicant they are investigating, and then only while the investigation is active)
  - 4.2.7(b) Resource Manager
  - 4.2.7(c) SPD Polygraph Technician (but only for the purpose of preparing questions for the respective candidate's polygraph examination)
  - 4.2.7(d) Training Section Commander (or designee)
  - 4.2.7(e) Support Services Division Commander (or designee)
  - 4.2.7(f) Investigations and Support Services Bureau Commander (or designee)
  - 4.2.7(g) Chief of Police (or designee)
  - 4.2.7(h) City of Springfield Director of Human Resources (or designee)
- 4.3 Review and Selection
  - 4.3.1 All individual Background Investigation Packets and test results shall be reviewed by, at minimum, the Resource Manager, Investigations and Support Services Bureau Commander, Chief of Police, and Director of the Human Resources Department (or their designees) for the purpose of selecting the most qualified candidates.
  - 4.3.2 If an applicant is judged to be qualified to hold the position of police officer and an open position exists, a "Conditional Offer of Employment" will be made. Such an offer will be made in writing and signed by the Chief of Police, Director of Human Resources, and the prospective candidate. If the applicant fails to sign the Conditional Offer of Employment, they shall no longer be eligible for employment.

- 4.3.3 An applicant who has received and accepted a Conditional Offer of Employment will then be considered a “candidate” for the position of police officer.
- 4.4 Post Job Offer
  - 4.4.1 A candidate must satisfactorily complete all the following steps of the hiring process to gain employment as a police officer with the City of Springfield.
    - 4.4.1(a) A polygraph examination shall be conducted by a certified polygraph technician trained to conduct such examinations and approved by the City of Springfield to administer the examination.
    - 4.4.1(b) Drug screening (urinalysis) shall be conducted at a medical facility approved by the City of Springfield to conduct such tests.
    - 4.4.1(c) Written psychological exams based upon accepted professional standards. (CALEA 31.5.7)
    - 4.4.1(d) A psychological evaluation conducted by a licensed psychologist or psychiatrist, based on procedures established for law enforcement officers. (CALEA 31.5.7)
    - 4.4.1(e) A medical examination shall be conducted by a licensed physician approved by the City of Springfield to perform such examinations. The examinations shall use valid, nondiscriminatory procedures to determine physical and medical fitness of the candidate for the position of police officer. This testing shall include hearing and vision tests. All medical, hearing, and vision testing pursuant to the police officer selection process conducted by the City of Springfield shall be at no cost to the candidate. Subsequent medical testing will be at the candidate’s expense.
    - 4.4.1(f) A final review and follow-up investigation. A final review may be conducted of each candidate concerning any new information received during the hiring process. Additional information or investigation may be requested. This review shall be made by, at minimum, the Resource Manager, Investigations and Support Services Bureau Commander, Chief of Police, and Director of the Human Resources Department (or their designees).
- 4.5 Candidates who successfully complete all phases of the hiring process and are selected for the position of police officer shall serve a period of probationary status for a minimum of one year from the date of the beginning of the academy.
